

HAVE YOU TRIED ART BRASS WORK?

Simple, yet enticing to do. Beautiful and valuable when finished. Economical.

Just received a fine line of patterns—candle and lamp shades, fern dishes, book-rack ends, trays, desk sets, picture frames. Some designs cost as low as 25c—others more.

Complete working outfit costs from $1.50 to $2.50, but good work can be done with only a punch.

Step in, see the new work, and get a free descriptive booklet.

Better Facilities To Do Your Laundry Work

We've just installed a new American Steam Collar Ironer. This is the finest machine, the world has produced, to do this class of work. It is one of the first machines of its kind in the state. This type of machine is not found outside the Metropolitan laundries. It will do your collars whiter, put on a better finish, and give a longer life to the collar.

WATERBURY

Judge Huntley was in St. Albans on business last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wells of Burlington spent Sunday in town.

Herbert Miller, Miss Miller and Dr. Huntley Palmer have the chicken pox.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Whitehill of Torrington are visiting at the home of their son, Editor H. C. Whitehill.

Robert Palmer, who has been principal of the school at Lyndon Center, will return home this week.

Hon. Chester W. Clark of Boston, who has been in town on business connected with the Drew Daniels Granite company, has returned home.

Richard Demeritt, who is traveling in New York state for the Demeritt & Palmer Packing Co., spent Sunday with relatives at Saranac Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Palmer, Jr., were in Montpelier last Thursday. Mr. Palmer was in attendance upon the meeting of the trustees of Montpelier seminary.

Mrs. Jordan, who is accompanist of the Burlington Cello club, has played very acceptably the organ at the Congregational church for the past two Sundays.

The lecture upon "Champlain," given by Rev. J. J. Lewis at the opera house last Thursday evening, was poorly attended. The lecture was very instructive and interesting.

Mrs. F. E. Atkins' class in piano, mandolin and violin gave a very pleasant musical at her home last week. Her pupils did excellent work and a good time was enjoyed by all. Refreshments of ice cream and wafers were served.

A memorial service for the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs was held Sunday afternoon at the Methodist church. Rev. A. J. Hough of Montpelier being the speaker. A double quartet furnished music. Mrs. Jordan of Burlington presided at the organ. On account of the rain, the decorating services had to be held in the lodge room.

The union services at the Congregational church Sunday morning was finely attended. The choir rendered Dudley Buck's Te Deum, and one of Nevins' duets was nicely sung by Mrs. Demeritt and Mr. Gupitt. The baccalaureate sermon, preached by the Rev. W. C. Johnson, was one of deep study. From the responsibility of parents in the home he went to the responsibility of the school and the teacher. Although the sermon was long, the interest of all was closely held.

Last Friday evening a very successful concert was given and a good sum netted by the Ladies' union of the Congregational church by the Cello club of Burlington. The house was packed and deep interest and appreciation was shown in each number of the program. Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Moody, the Cello club again charmed an audience of Waterbury and Montpelier ladies. The resident members of Lafayette chapter, D. A. R., entertained the members from Montpelier. The program of the night before was repeated with a few changes. The work of the club and of Mr. Wilder as director was greatly praised, also the work of Miss Delaney, a lyric soprano, who sang in a charming manner Champlain's "Summer."
